Our Story

Francis S. O'Brien

Quality workmanship at a fair price - this has been the tradition of F.S. O'Brien Electric since its founding in 1926 by Francis S. O'Brien.

Started in Jamaica, New York, the company has now grown to service some of the largest architects, engineers and builders in the New York metropolitan region.

Throughout this record of achievement, F.S. O'Brien Electric has remained true to its traditions, and is now run by Tim and Rich Dunn, the grandsons of the founder.

In these pages, feel free to explore a sampling of recent achievements on behalf of our clients.
